

RANGER

Ranger and family volunteers give “100 percent and then some” to National Ranger Monument in August 2021

Left Column – Top to Bottom:

-  Rick Harris holds up a large, square spacer stone that had to be replaced.
-  A young, unnamed active-duty Ranger sprays new paint on an engraved name.
-  Steve Caldwell has vacuum running as he removes mortar from old stones

Center Columns Top to Bottom:

-  Dusk & daytime monument images
-  (Left) Gold Star sister Mary Kubik is assisted by tiny Caroline Mayne. Mary & her brother’s image are inset. Sgt. Ronald A. Kubik, was KIA at age 21 April 23, 2010, in Afghanistan on his third deployment.

-  (Right) New Ranger Outreach Director in Columbus, GA, Tony Mayne, presents gift to Israel Christian, son of Marc Michelic, 75th Regimental Special Troops Battalion

-  Steve Caldwell sands off old mortar from large spacer stone
-  Tony Mayne scrapes off excess paint
-  MAJ Adam Rupert is almost at face level as he scrapes excess paint from a name.
